FBPS NEWSLETTER

March 2021

It has certainly been a busy few weeks since the children returned to school. I have been so impressed by their positive attitudes, maturity and eagerness to learn. It really is lovely to have them all back in school. It doesn't seem long since I last wrote out but there are a few updates before we break up for the Easter holidays.

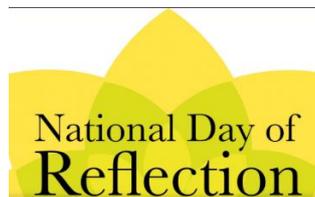

Red Nose Day- 19th March 2021

Thank you for your generous donations to Comic relief. Together we £84.00

National Autism Awareness week (29th March – 4th April)

Whilst we are not in school for Autism Awareness week, we will still be marking this event through focused PSHE sessions and wearing non-uniform to the theme of 'Wear it Loud' on Friday 26th March. As this date is so close to Comic Relief we will not be asking for donations but will be using the day to raise autism awareness in our school. We invite children to wear their brightest clothes to stand out proudly.

National Day of Reflection- Tuesday 23rd March

We will be marking this national event to reflect upon the year which has gone by since the lockdown was implemented in 2020 by observing a 1 minute silence at 12pm. We will also be sensitively talking to the children about what they have learned, missed and what they are looking forward to most once restrictions are lifted.

Parent Consultations- Tuesday 23rd March

Staff are looking forward to the opportunity to discuss your child's learning and progress during these meetings. Please take time to complete the parental questionnaire which was sent out on Friday- your feedback is greatly appreciated.

FBPS Science Week- 12th April- 16th April

During our first week back we will be dedicating a week to Science across the school. Classes will be busy exploring, questioning, hypothesising and of course investigating in order to develop their skills as scientists and invoke curiosity and excitement for discovery.
